

Day 12.01.2026

Prof. Moses Nyangito, Dean of the Faculty of Agriculture and of Chairman the Department of Land Resource Management & Agricultural Technology - LARMAT, UoN officially opened the face-to-face workshop of the module, introduced by welcome words from Prof. Richard Onwonga, chairman of - LARMAT.

Prof. Oliver Wasonga and Simon Muti provides a brief recap on the previous module activities including principles of rangeland utilization, management & nutritional value of range forages (Muti)

Wasonga

Muti

This was followed by a vividly discussed presentation on grazing management systems of Dr. Munene Kithama and Dr. Christian Hülsebusch including case examples of emerging systems from various regions.

At the evening Dr. Raphael Lotira Arasio introduced into the One Health approach to prepare the questions and inputs to discuss the next day

